Message To Women

Those of Middle Age Especially.
If you have found no remedy for the horrors that you during change of life, when through the long day it seems as though your back would break, your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds safely through this critical period.

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.
"I am writing to let you know how much your has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no and at times was very weak.
I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained weight, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day.
I am asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish. I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get from your medicine as I did."—Mrs. A. HORNUNG, 91 St. Paul, Buffalo, N. Y.

Was a Blessing To This Woman.
"I was troubled with a bearing down pain and weakness and could not stand long on my feet. Of all the I took nothing helped me like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now regular and am getting along fine. I make the Compound too much. It has been a blessing to me and it will be to other women."—Mrs. D. TYLER, 25 West St., Richmond, Va.

Pains in Side, Could Hardly Stand.
"I was in a bad condition, suffering from a female trouble and I had such pains in my sides I could hardly move. Before I took the whole of one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt better, and now I am well and can do a good day's work. I tell everybody what your medicine has done for me."
—Mrs. Thompson, Lodi, Wisconsin.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female troubles for over 30 years. No one sick with woman's ailments should neglect to get it. It is a medicine made from roots and herbs, it cures so many suffering women to health.
Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.,
LYNN, MASS., for advice.
The medicine will be opened, read and answered and held in strict confidence.

CRUELTY IN SHEARING OPPOSED BY ACTRESS

Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske
Announces Herself Friend of Long-suffering Sheep.

A campaign begun by Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske, the actress, to have state laws passed making it a serious offense for a shearer to injure sheep while clipping, will have the hearty support of C. B. Stewart, secretary of the Utah State Woolgrowers' association, and Dr. T. B. Beatty, president of the State Humane society. Mrs. Fiske became interested in the work of preventing cruelty to sheep during her last trip through the west. She has taken the matter up with Dr. Beatty and Mr. Stewart and both stated yesterday that she would have their hearty co-operation.

Mrs. Fiske's proposition, as outlined in a letter received by Mr. Stewart, is to have the governors of all the sheep states use their efforts to have the laws covering this offense made more stringent. While recently, Mrs. Fiske was given data regarding the sheep cruelty by Dr. Beatty. She writes that she has taken the matter up with one of the Utah senators and he has assured her that conditions in the shearing corrals of Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado and other intermountain states are just as bad as they are in Utah. Discussing the cruelty to sheep, practiced by shearers, Mr. Stewart yesterday said:

The sheep are not only treated in an inhuman way, the hide being clipped off with the wool and the shears jabbed into the animal because of failure to stand still, but the animals often die as a result and thus a loss is caused to the owners. I think the loss in this state will total about $100,000 a year. The sheep shearers have a union and the owners can do nothing for fear of a strike. But if the acts of cruelty were made serious offenses by law, much of this would cease. I am heartily in accord with the movement and will aid Mrs. Fiske in every way.

FERNLEY DEMANDS RETURN OF MONEY

Says Company Is Insolvent and Manager Dissipates Its Income in Fancy Salaries.

Another suit in intervention in the case of Albert C. Fisher and others against the Union Savings & Investment company, was filed in the district court yesterday by William E. Fernley.

Fernley charges that the company is insolvent; that its assets have been dissipated by wrongful acts of its officers, and that he and other stockholders have been defrauded of the amounts they invested in the company. He asks for a return of $600 invested by him and for the appointment of a receiver.

It is alleged that the company has fallen entirely into the hands of D. J. Williams, general manager, and that Williams is appropriating all the income of the company to the payment of fancy salaries to himself and members of his family.

NEW BANK TO OPEN ITS DOORS THURSDAY

The beautiful new Farmers & Stock-growers' bank building at 125 South Main street will be thrown open next Thursday. This announcement was made yesterday by the cashier of the bank, finished in Utah marble and with the latest banking house appointments, the building will be one of the finest of its kind in the city. A formal programme will mark the opening.

TROOPS IN SERVICE CURTAIL MANEUVERS

General Wedgwood, However, Thinks Meeting Can Be Turned to Advantage.

Official information announcing that the Utah state militia and a detachment of regular troops from the United States army could attend the annual military maneuvers at a camp in the neighborhood of Salt Lake during the coming summer was received yesterday by Adjutant General E. A. Wedgwood of the national guard of Utah.

The announcement contained in the communication from the war department specifies that the plans are only tentative. However, it is probable, unless unforeseen circumstances develop, that the plans will be carried out. Under these plans a separate maneuver camp near Salt Lake will be maintained for the national guard of Utah and one company of regular army soldiers from the Presidio at San Francisco.

Originally it had been hoped that the Utah guard would be sent to a large maneuver camp where there would be several thousand troops engaged in the maneuvers. However, the fact that a large part of the regular army of the United States is either at the Mexican border, or in Hawaii or the Philippines, leaves only a small number for the maneuvers this year and probably influenced the war department to plan for only minor maneuvers.

With reference to the information he has received relative to the militia maneuvers, Adjutant General E. A. Wedgwood said yesterday:

It has been the custom heretofore to hold joint maneuvers of considerable magnitude in every alternate year, participated in by the organizations of the national guard of the states and troops of the regular army. No explanation of why this custom is to be departed from is given by the war department, but undoubtedly good reasons exist. It is a matter of common knowledge, from information furnished by the public press, that substantially 25,000 or 28,000 of the 35,000, or thereabouts, of the mobile force of the regular army are at present stationed on the border and in our outlying possessions, and, therefore, no great number of troops of the regular force is available for maneuver work with the national guard of the states. The department, however, is adhering to the plan of bringing guard troops and the regulars together, so that the benefits of contact and association may be kept up and the department may be advised, through disinterested regular officers, of the degree of efficiency of the state forces. From many standpoints it would seem preferable if the larger maneuver could be held as heretofore, but if certain plans the guard organizations have for the state the year 1915 be carried out, the camp proposed by the department can be turned to advantage.

JUDGMENT INCREASED BY SUPREME COURT

High Judicial Tribunal Holds That Sum Recovered From Bank Was Insufficient.

In an opinion rendered yesterday the supreme court orders a modification of the decree entered in the district court in the case of Eliza D. Stoll against the Commercial National bank, so as to increase the judgment in favor of the plaintiff from $194.63 to $1185.38.

Mrs. Stoll sued to recover money alleged to have been paid out on her account without her consent to A. D. B. Russell, who claimed to act as her agent. It was shown that Russell had used a power of attorney in drawing the money and that Mrs. Stoll had never given this power. The lower court granted her $194.63 and she appealed, asking for $990.76 additional.

The supreme court finds that the money paid out was unauthorized and was paid out by the bank after Mrs. Stoll had served notice on the bank that no checks against her account were to be honored unless they contained her own signature and indorsement. Accordingly, the lower court is ordered to modify its decree in accordance with that finding.

In another opinion rendered yesterday the supreme court reverses the lower court in the case of Joseph A. Obrecht against the Nielson Land & Water company. Obrecht sued to enforce the terms of a contract.

GREAT PREPARATION FOR TRAVEL OF 1915

C. M. & St. P. Railway Spends $22,000, 000 in Reversing Line Between Chicago and Omaha.

As an example of the preparation being made by the transcontinental railroads to handle the heavy business of 1915 and succeeding years, the report of improvements made by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad during the past year shows that this road will have spent $22,000,000 by July 1 in reversing its Omaha-Chicago line. A report of the improvements made, received yesterday by the local office of the road, states that by the date mentioned the double track between Omaha and Chicago will be entirely completed. Revision of the line, according to the report, has in many instances taken the road away from old townsites, and in these cases the towns are being moved bodily to the new locations. Electric block signals are being installed the entire distance. One feature of the improvement is the new bridge over the Des Moines river. This is one of the largest structures of its kind in the world, 2,400 feet long and contains 6500 tons of steel.

The improvements are virtually completed and constitute, declares the report, one of the largest pieces of railway construction carried on in recent times in this country.

BOYS' LEADERS' CLUB IS SURE OF SUCCESS

So successful have the activities of the Boys' Leaders' club been at the Deseret gymnasium since the founding of the organization last Monday that Robert Richardson, instructor at the gymnasium, has presented the club members with several cozy tables and chairs. Besides the furniture already in use in the beautiful clubroom above the gymnasium, the instructors have also donated numerous pennants, pictures and other curios and wall decorations. According to the leaders, the clubroom now in use is the best and most cozy of its kind in the city.

The club has already planned many festivities, including exclusive membership parties, banquets for club members and friendly athletic functions in the nature of socials.

'YAMA-YAMA' SUITS POVE AN OBSTACLE

As Result Dean Lucy M. Van
Cott, of U. of U. Women,
Is in Quandary.

Natural shyness is one of the characteristics of college students which Dean Lucy M. Van Cott of the University of Utah women failed to grasp when she announced that she would give a Yama-Yama party at which all the young men and women should wear Yama-Yama costumes built to order for the occasion by the women of the university. Encouraged by the prospect of helping needy girls make their way through the university, through the use of the girls' loan fund, the dean undertook something new in the hope of attracting a large crowd to the party and a consequent increase in the girls' fund.

The party was announced for April 3 and all the students in the college who have passed Miss Van Cott's door for the past week have been seized and intrusted with the sale of half a dozen or more tickets.

"But alas," says Miss Van Cott, "the tickets are not being sold, and if you students don't get busy we will make nothing out of our party." Still the dollars refused to roll in and Miss Van Cott began an investigation of the causes.

"The men are too bashful to wear Yama-Yama suits to the party and won't leave their girls," that is the trouble," she said, after interviews with a number of students, "and what is worse, only about one-half of the girls know how to make the suits, anyway, so that when the men ask them to go they have to excuse themselves."

When asked how she would overcome the difficulty the dean said: "The girls' loan fund is almost depleted and many of the senior women will need money before the year is over and can't get it if we don't raise it soon. We must sell these tickets. I will see every boy myself if I have to and make him buy a ticket, and I will see that all the girls learn how to make Yama-Yama suits, too."

John E. Hill, Civil War Veteran, Dies of General Debility; Was Native of Ohio.

John E. Hill, 77 years of age, a civil war veteran and one time state treasurer of Nebraska, died at his residence, 270 Ninth East street, yesterday, of general debility.

Mr. Hill came to Salt Lake in 1901. He bought and for a time operated the Elgin dairy, but sold it upon the death of his son, John E. Hill, Jr., in 1905, the young man having been the active manager of the business. Except for his interest in a few mining properties, Mr. Hill has been retired from business life ever since the death of his son, his health having failed.

Mr. Hill served with the rank of captain in company F of the One Hundred and Eleventh Ohio volunteers. He was mustered out three months before the expiration of his term of enlistment because of disability from an attack of pneumonia. He was elected to the office of treasurer of the state of Nebraska in 1888 and served two terms. He was a native of Ohio, having been born at Berlin, Holmes county, December 9, 1836.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Laura Hill, Mr. Hill is survived by one son and three daughters. They are: Herbert Hill, living in Nevada; Mrs. Norman Belcher of Caldwell, Idaho; Mrs. J. H. Baker of Tampa, Fla.; and Mrs. Gertrude Welsh of Salt Lake. Funeral services will be held at the residence some time Sunday, the definite time yet to be decided upon. The body will be sent to Lincoln, Neb., for burial.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS PLANNING BIG EVENT

Will Whitewash Great 'U' on Decoration Day and Enjoy Cabaret Dinner Later.

The day after Arbor day the students of the University of Utah will whitewash the big 'U' on the hill and elaborate preparations are now being planned to celebrate the occasion with a cabaret dinner after the work is done. About 500 of the men students will go to the hill to mix the white coating and brush it onto the concrete letter, while the women of the institution will remain on the campus and prepare the feast for the men to enjoy upon their return from the hillside.

The feature of the day promises to be a cabaret entertainment, furnished by student talent to be conducted on the platform in the assembly hall while the ladies are being eaten.

The show will be under the management of Roscoe Ashworth, manager of the varsity dramatic club, and the students are expecting much in the way of entertainment. He declares that he has selected some splendid artists from the class in social dancing and that these, together with various of the fraternity entertainers, will surprise the entire student body with their cleverness. Ashworth is a slight-of-hand performer of some ability and also will be on the programme.

Plain Truth That's Worth Money.

Using Foley's Honey and Tar for a cough or cold may save you both sickness and money. F. F. I recommend it gladly." Refuse substitutes. Schramm-Johnson, Drugs; "The Never-Substitutors." Five (5) Good Stores.

BYHOWER DISCUSSES TRIMMING OF TREES

Nicholas Byhower, superintendent of the city parks, severely censured the indiscriminate trimming of shade trees in a talk before the Parent-Teacher association at the high school yesterday. Superintendent Byhower advised that there should be an expert employed by the city to care for trees and supervise their trimming.

A Word of Caution.

One should be exceptionally careful just now about taking cold, and when a cold is contracted get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish this you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy excellent. It is not only prompt and effective but is pleasant and safe to take, and has a reputation of forty years back of it.
